

Survivors of Suicide Loss Support Group

A support group for survivors of suicide who lost someone to suicide is starting in Wayne and Pike Counties. These support groups are for the individuals who lost someone not those who have tried to take their lives by suicide or thought of taking their lives by suicide. These groups will help provide positive support in dealing with the issues you face. The format of the group will be educational/support with an occasional speaker for each meeting. This format can be changed based on what the individuals in attendance are in need of. The details of the meeting are:
